

Community and Stakeholder Engagement

The community and stakeholders in general are wealthy with information and knowledge. We draw from their knowledge, experiences and aspirations to understand matters in the community and work with community and stakeholders to develop approaches that are innovative, practical and that foster an ownership of solutions, interventions and outcomes!

