

Strategic Facilitation

Strategic facilitation involves the facilitation of conversations that are of a strategic nature to realise outcomes that meet strategic needs without getting distracted by operational details and yet accommodating for their necessity in such conversations.

